PROMISES

Today’s liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God’s will makes us “family” with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend.

God’s love for us and our love for God aren’t seasonal. We teach our children the importance of consistency in things that are important (e.g. brushing one’s teeth). Praying in church is a necessary action for us, Catholics. The Mass is the greatest prayer. Bring your children to Mass on Sundays. We need to thank God. We need blessings, forgiveness, inspiration and God’s peace even when school is out.

What are these two symbols? Where are they located in our church? Whom do they represent? Answers in next week’s bulletin.

Sponsors for Baptism and Confirmation

Being a sponsor (Godparent, spiritual parent) is a sacramental ministry. The sponsor takes part in the ritual as a Catholic and provides example from his/her life through living and acting as a full member of the Catholic Church. Because of the seriousness of this ministry, the Church has the following requirements:

+ The sponsor must be fully initiated into the Catholic Church through Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist, and be at least 16 years of age.
+ The sponsor must be a Catholic who has an active life in the Church and provides good example. Someone married outside the church is not able to be a sponsor. Also, a Catholic who has left the Church is not permitted to stand as a sponsor of a new member into the church.
