Over A Century of St. Ambrose 1914

WELL-ROUNDED EDUCATION

Our competitive sports teams include baseball, basketball, soccer, bowling, and track. We also have a variety of clubs ranging from debate to yearbook.

BROTHERHOOD

A healthy fraternity system helps students bond and pursue shared interests. Cathedral men build friendships that last a lifetime – just ask our alumni.

NOTE TO PARENTS

As faithful Catholics, you want the best education for your son in a thoroughly faith-filled environment. You want your son to grow closer to the Church in his teen years, not drift away from it. You want him to discover his true vocation in life, whatever it may be. Most of all, you want your son to be happy—to be well educated, well-rounded, and well-loved.

At Cathedral those are our goals too. The word “seminary” in our name means “seedbed.” Some seeds at Cathedral do in fact mature into priests, thanks be to God. But most of our graduates go on to great careers in the world, carrying a strong faith with them.

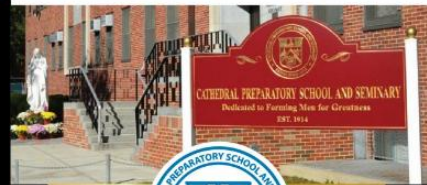

If you want your son to mature into a truly great man—whether or not he’s called to priesthood—plant the seeds of greatness at Cathedral Prep.

Yours in Christ,

Father James A. Kuroly, Rector-President

INTENSIVE ACADEMICS

Cathedral has a personal, one-on-one learning environment. Our challenging courses are a terrific preparation for college-level study.

LIFE IN CHRIST

At Cathedral, our first teacher is Christ. We attend daily Mass and have Eucharistic Adoration weekly. Priests are available to offer spiritual direction to students.

VOCATION DISCERNMENT

Not all Cathedral men are called to priesthood – but some are. Students learn how to listen for God's voice and carefully discern their vocation, whatever it may be.
