whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

Sacred Paschal Triduum

No liturgical event can match the majestic symbolic sweep of the Paschal Triduum– one extraordinary feast parsed into distinct acts and performed over three days.

First Act: Holy Thursday

Mass of the Lord's Supper

Jesus washing the feet of the feet of his disciples and giving the mandate that they go and do likewise.

Second Act: Good Friday

The most austere and haunting of the three days. Altar bare, tabernacle door left open. This solemn recollection of Crist's Passion leads us to the veneration of the cross.

The third act: The great Vigil.

The Spirit calls with a blazing fire. Light to light, candle to candle, we process into the church, welcomed by the achingly beautiful Exsultet that daringly insists "this is the night" in which God's salvation is on offer. The Vigil's scriptural feast bestows surfeit of drama, brimming with promises of divine love and fidelity. With the dawn of Easter morning we bask in the promise of resurrected life that is indeed our inheritance.
