Five simple words

Be it a time of distress, a moment of loss, or a season of uncertainty, sometimes the greatest offer we can receive is the promise of a prayer.

I will pray for you.

With these five simple words a solitary burden is transformed to a communal endeavor.

2023 Corpus Christi Procession

Below is an outline of this year's Corpus Christi Procession route. Parishioners are invited to erect an altar in the front of their homes. The procession will pause at the altar, Father will bless it and pray before continuing. Parishioners have the option of distinguishing their homes by using an appropriate religious display, (e.g. Images of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, or a crucifix or Rosaries), and as the procession passes Father will bless the house.

For more information, please call the Rectory at 718-859-9009.

Divine Choreography

We continue our transition back into Ordinary Time by meditating on the Trinity, the mystery awaiting us on the other side of Lent and Easter. This great mystery - the divine reality of three-in-one – lies beyond the shores of reason. According to St. Augustine, if we think we understand it, then what we understand is not God.

What we can know about the Trinity, we know through relationships. The Trinity is the powerful God coming in a cloud to form a covenant with Israel. It is the gift of divinity embodied in Jesus Christ, who comes to embrace the world. And it is the Spirit permeating all things.

After the Israelites' grave misstep while camped near Mt. Sinai – their violation of the covenant through the creation of an idol – Moses pleads with God to forgive them and inherit them again as God's treasured people. This story is our own, reminding us that God is compassionate and ever-forgiving, "slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." God is always present among us and between us, drawing us into relationship.

As Christians we experience this relationship through the Trinity, which theologians have likened to a "dance" or "choreography. The Trinity dances in and around us, pulling us into the divine embrace through greatness of God, the humanity of the Son, and the Spirit breathes us into union.

The Trinity calls us tirelessly to join this dance through our own relationships and commitments – to be present among and between others, and to seek always to be compassionate, faithful, and forgiving.
