Prayer to our Lady of Fatima

O Most Holy Virgin Mary, Queen of the most holy Rosary, you were pleased to appear to the children of Fatima and reveal a glorious message. We implore you, inspire in our hearts a fervent love for the recitation of the Rosary. By meditating on the mysteries of the redemption that are recalled therein may we obtain the graces and virtues that we ask, through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer.

The Eucharist "is the source and summit of the Christian life."

The Eucharist Is The Heart Of Our Life In Christ

God is God, we are not!
Jesus' teaching in the Gospels this week is that none of us is truly independent. None of us can go it alone. We will all perish if separated from the vine that gives us life.
The beginning of Christian life is the recognition that God, is God, and we are not. No matter our skills, intelligence, or wealth, we cannot save ourselves. Instead, we are saved precisely because we are joined to the vine that is Christ. Not only does he sustain us in this life, but he also opens the door to eternal life. In baptism, we are conformed to Christ and we become part of his body. As members of his body, we share in his resurrection.
While our union with Christ in baptism is the source of our salvation, that gift comes with a responsibility as well. As members of Christ's Body, we share his mission to spread the Good News to every corner of the world. We are called to help everyone we meet to encounter Jesus, who brings hope, freedom and life. We are called to embrace our sisters and brothers, recognizing that they too draw life from the same vine. As we grow in the realization that we rely fully on God's gift to us, our welcoming embrace expands. Our loving concern extends beyond our circle of family and friends. We reach out to those most different from us, to those on the peripheries, and to those who are discarded and forgotten. Aware of God's grace active in our lives –and our utter dependence on that grace –we look at each of God's precious children with new eyes. Rather than seeing others as failing to meet society's standard of self-reliance, we see fellow branches on the same vine, drawing life from the same source. We reach out to share God's love through our concrete acts of service and advocacy so that the whole vine may flourish. Rooted in God's grace and the sacrificial love of Jesus, we know that we will never be alone.

Forgiven

March 16, Divine Mercy Sunday, ironically was our last session of the Formed program "Forgiven - The Transforming Power of Confession." This series focused mainly on the necessity and importance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It made the compelling point that it is in this sacrament where we meet a compassionate, loving, Jesus. His love and forgiveness in this sacrament is like none other. It gave us the reassurance that confessing our sins to a priest who is the representative of Jesus himself, should not be a time of anxiety and fear. The videos were most relatable: putting faces to the questions and concerns that many lay people have about confession.

In the end, we were challenged to open our hearts and trust in God's Mercy and His Love through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It is here we can leave all of the baggage we have been carrying around.
