God's love for us

and our love for God aren't seasonal.
We teach our children the importance of consistency in things that are important (e.g. brushing one's teeth).
Praying in church is a necessary action for us, Catholics.
The Mass is the greatest prayer.
Bring your children to Mass on Sundays.
We need to thank God.
We need blessings, forgiveness, inspiration and God's peace, even when school is out.

Pope Francis' June Intention

For the abolition of torture
We pray that the international community may commit in a concrete way to ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families.

The Eucharist "is the source and summit of the Christian life."

Blessed and blessing

This week, we read about divine promises, avoidance of societal conflict, assurance of a future, and the creation of a people – issues touching each of our lives. In Monday's reading (Gen. 12: 1- 9), God promises the stability that comes from the experience of being at home in the land, a stability that many people lack today. God also promises prosperity in descendants, wealth, and reputation. What is often overlooked is the promise that Abraham will be a source of blessing for others. Clearly, God's goodness is not meant simply for one man, one family, or one people. God works through some in order to bless others. This is seen in Tuesday's reading (Gen. 13: 2, 5 – 18), where conflict is avoided when Abraham allows Lot to choose the better portion of land. This is still the case, today; the people of God are blessed, not merely for their own peace and prosperity, but that they might serve as a blessing for others.

If biblical stories are more than religious history but also function as mirrors, what do they reflect? How do they remind us that as a Church, we are to be a blessing for others? In order to avoid conflict, are we willing to step back and allow others to benefit? What are we doing to address the indescribable environmental and financial burdens that face our children? When we hear this week's readings proclaimed, do we mean it when we respond: "Thanks be to God!"?

Special Collections

Peter's Pence Collection

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a world wide collection that supports the work of the universal Church, including the work of the Holy See and the charitable works of Pope Francis. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a sign of mercy to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today. For more information , visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

The Pontifical Mission Societies

Thank you for your generous support of the Pontifical Mission Societies Collection. This collection is for the Catholic Diocese of Sambalpur, Odisha, India. The faithful, mostly tribal and economically below the poverty line, often face persecution in the name of religion. The priests of Sambalpur Mission continue to work hard towards strengthening the faith of these oppressed Christians through Pastoral, Catechetical, and Educational ministries. Our priests are growing old too. We would like to provide a retirement home for these elderly priests who have faced many challenges to spread the gospel in the mission. The Sambalpur Mission needs your prayer support and financial generosity for this purpose to keep the flame of Christian unity alive. Thank you and may God bless you.

Homebound Ministry

Please contact the Rectory Office if you are homebound or know of any parishioner who is homebound or anyone going for a medical procedure who would like to be anointed by a priest and/or receive the Holy Eucharist.

The Eucharist Is The Heart Of Our Life In Christ

Don't be Afraid

"Fear no one," Jesus says. "Don't be afraid." "Easier said than done." We worry about things that might not happen or about which we have no control. Fear keeps us wide awake. Sometimes we manufacture things to fear.

Fear keeps us from acting. Fear keeps us from accepting. Fear, Jesus tells us, thrives on our secrets. Fear make some feel apologetic for being Catholic or unable to proclaim their faith. Some are afraid of being judged or seeming too intense.

We can allay our fears if we truly believe like Jeremiah that "the Lord is with us, like a mighty champion." St. Paul writes that we can overcome fear—and sin and death—by the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ." Darkness of fear will always falter in the light of God's grace.
