God's love for us and our love for God aren't seasonal. We teach our children the importance of consistency in things that are important (e.g. brushing one's teeth).

Praying in church is a necessary action for us, Catholics.

The Mass is the greatest prayer.

Bring your children to Mass on Sundays.

We need to thank God.

We need blessings, forgiveness, inspiration and God's peace, even when school is out.

Mass Intentions

We encourage you to honor and/or memorialize a loved one, living or deceased, with a Mass, a gift of bread and wine, sanctuary candle, altar candle, chapel candle or altar flowers.

Requests must be submitted on or before the Friday, two weeks before the desired date. Place your request together with your name and phone number in a sealed envelope in the offering basket.

Please make a donation with each request.

Celebrating a Century of Faith and Service 1923 - 2023

Read the Gospel of the day,

Take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:

- What word or words in this passage caught your attention?
- What in this passage comforted you?
- What in this passage challenged you?

Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time:

Ez 2:2-5; Ps 123:1-4; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Mk 6:1-6a. Jesus is met with misgivings and rejection by his own relatives (3). Like them, we often resist the prophetic word because of an obstinacy of heart (1), rooted in a self-pride (Ps), which must give way to weakness and powerlessness (2).

Monday:

Hos 2:16, 17b -18, 21-22; Ps 145:2-9; Mt 9:18-26. Hosea calls Israel to return to the Lord (1) who is kind and merciful (Ps). The needy place their faith in Jesus (2).

Tuesday:

Hos 8:4-7, 11-13; Ps 115:3-10; Mt 9:32-38. Hosea protests the spread of idolatry (1). Jesus prays for laborers of the harvest (2).

Wednesday:

Hos 10:1-3, 7-8, 12; Ps 105:2-7; Mt 10:1-7. Seek justice and true worship (1), seek the face of the Lord (Ps). The twelve are sent to proclaim the reign of God (2).

Thursday:

Hos 11:1-4, 8c-9; Ps 80:2-3, 15-16. Mt 10:7-15. The Lord will protect (Ps) us and show us mercy (1). God's love is to be shared as a gift (2).

Friday:

Hos 14:2-10; Ps 51:3-4, 8-9, 12-14, 17. Mt 10:16-23. God welcomes repentance for sin (1). The joy of salvation (Ps) is experienced even in the midst of trial and distress.

Saturday:

Is 6:1-8; Ps 93:1-2, 5; Mt 10:24-33. During a vision in the temple of God's majestic holiness (Ps), Isaiah is called to be a prophet (1). We need only fear the one who can destroy the soul.

The harvest is abundant;
but the laborers are few.

Luke 10:2

Scripture Reflection

Read Sunday's Gospel: Mk 6:1-6a

What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

What kind of wisdom has been given him? What sources of wisdom do I rely on? What sort of wisdom do I need at this moment in my life?

What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! For what shall I give God praise and thanksgiving today? How can I view my surroundings with the eyes of Christ?

He was amazed at their lack of faith. When have I felt that my faith is lacking? What people or things strengthen my faith?

After a period of silent reflection recite the Lord's Prayer.

Grace is when God gives us something we do not deserve.

Mercy is when God does not give us what we do deserve.

Grace on Thorny Days

Last week a colleague welcomed a new baby. Her good news meant I abruptly acquired two extra classes to teach and fifty more students whose names I have yet to learn. My husband had surgery, so I am caretaking. Dear God, I prayed, no more thorns this week. I grabbed the laundry basket and opened the basement door to find water lapping at the steps. Oh, God. As I reached for the mop, I prayed for just enough grace to get through the day.

What was I expecting of this just-enough, just-in-time grace? After all, grace didn't relieve St. Paul of his thorn in the flesh, nor was I expecting God to miraculously deliver me from the grading or the wet basement floor.

God assured Ezekiel that regardless of the success of his mission, people will know that a prophet has been among them. Perhaps that is the grace that Paul—and all of us—are promised. Not that grace will relieve us of the troubles that beset us, but that by the light of that grace we will know that God has been with us through the thorny days. Like the people in Jesus' hometown, we may not see great miracles come to pass, indeed, we might not even dare to hope for such signs. Even so, Jesus moves among us, quietly healing our wounds, setting us back on our feet.

Nada te turbe, begins the little prayer found tucked in St. Teresa of Avila's prayer book: let nothing disturb you. All these things will pass. God alone is enough. For today, it is grace enough for me to know that, too.
